Two Great Fleets In Running Battle East Of Australia

Neither Side Announces Own Losses, But Tokyo Claims Three U. S. Ships Sunk; Anzacs Feel Fate of Continent Hangs On Outcome

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Australia, May 8 .- The

Allied headquarters announced that already 10 Japanese ships had been sunk and six badly damaged, as follows: Sunk: An aircraft carrier, a heavy cruiser, a light another Japanese transport in a raid on the Louisiade islands northeast of Australia. The Japanese countered with a claim that an American battleship of the California class and two aircraft carriers of the Saratoga and Yorktown classes had been sunk, a British battleship and an Australian cruiser heavily damaged.

Neither side reported losses of its own, but the British admiralty promptly denied the Japanese claim that the battleship Warspite or any other British battleship has been sunk or damaged in the battle.

Allied headquarters did not specifically name the location but successive communiques indicated it was ranging over a wide expanse of ocean south of the Solomon islands and extending into the Coral sea.

If actually in the Coral sea, the battle indicates the Japanese have broken through the outer screen of islands which shield the Australian continent on the east at a distance of about 1,000 miles.

The critical importance of the gigantic conflict was apparent—perhaps rivalling that of the disputed World-war battle of Jutland, which so far stands as the heaviest naval engagement of all time.

There has been no time to listen, but the senate has been having a mildly momentous discussion re cently aout something very close to every citizen-control and political ax-grinding in the Tennesse valley. Senators were discussing whether TVA should be financially independent of congress, or should be held answerable to congress in the same way as the war and navy departments. How, the forward thinkers asked, would congress, representing the peopic, keep control of them? The answer, subject to revision, is that congress already has lost control of at least one of them. Judged by what has been said recently in the senate, TVA is running its own show If congress doesn't like what it's doing, it can lump

MATTEVI REMODELS LAPE HOTEL ROOMS

Extensive improvements at the Lape hotel have been completed, making the place one of the most modern hotels in this section. Twenty rooms have been remod-eled in knotty pine, with individually tiled baths and showers being installed. Plans for altering the re-maining rooms will be held up until after the war, Louis Mattevi, manager of the hotel, said.

The knotty pine effect was carried out in the hotel restaurant two years ago and met such favorable response that Mattevi decided to use the design in the second and third floor rooms.

New plumbing has been installed throughout the hotel. Individual cloth towel service is a feature of the two new lobby restrooms. A public shower on the third floor is for the convenience of those

Buccos, Giants Split In Day's Only Action On Basebal! Front

Baseball will go to bat for war relief today with the first of 16 regularly scheduled major league games from which army and navy assistance funds will get all pro-

Appropriately this affair will be staged by the Brooklyn Dodgers, whose president, L. S. (Larry) MacPhail first campaigned for such a program, and will be unique in that it will be a twilight game and that all persons who enter Ebbets field, including the players and umpires, will buy tickets. Even the peanut and hotdog venors must buy tickets. Ducats for oldiers and sailors will be bought by various organizations.

Brooklyn's foe for this dramatic encounter, starting at 4:45 p. m. (EWT) will be the New York Giants. Later the same teams will play a companion piece at the Polo Grounds. The series was planned by MacPhail and President Horace Stoneham of the Giants last month and became the basis for the program evolved by Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis for all other major league clubs.

The present installment in the National league's hottest rivalry comes during a sort of intermission in the intersectional skirmishing of both leagues.

The first siege between the eastern and western clubs came to an end yesterday with inclement weather erasing all games except a doubleheader between the Giants and the Pittsburgh Pirates.
